

Town centre bar hit with closure notice

■ ANNOYED | No 10 proprietor Paul Hindes was forced to close his bar on Saturday night

A TOWN centre bar was slapped with a closure notice at the weekend. The doors were slammed shut on Bridport's No 10 café/bar after a closure notice was issued on behalf of the district council's license control team.

The café/bar re-opened again hours later following an inspection by a Bridport police officer on the morning of June 10th.

The latest incident at the East Street bar has caused its owner Paul Hindes to think about closing it after years of fighting to keep the bar open has taken its toll.

West Dorset District Council (WDDC) senior licensing officer Jenna Rawle said Dorset Police had found two breaches of the licence conditions and issued a section 19 notice.

She said: "An officer of the district council's Licensing Team carried out a number of planned routine joint inspection with Dorset Police on Saturday night. One of the premises attended was No 10 in East Street, Bridport."

The closure notice was issued at 12:10am last Sunday because of a lack of CCTV coverage and the breaching of a capacity control order.

Mr Hindes denied the CCTV system was faulty, instead blaming data protection law which bans the televised part of the system being viewed by the general public.

The 68-year-old also questioned how the capacity count was undertaken – claiming some customers had reported being counted up to three different occasions on the night.

He said: "The officer claimed the CCTV wasn't working but it was, it's as straight forward as that."

"If there had been a problem we could still have fulfilled all the requirements of our license."

"If we have too many people in we can control that within minutes but she was more worried about the CCTV.

"I live about 90 seconds away and if they had called me I could have demonstrated it working, but the officer put

CHARMOUTH resident Nicky Coleman will be heading for the Olympics next month to work as a medic.

Originally from Kent, NHS nurse Nicky moved to Charmouth in 1993. She has five sons and recently became a new grandmother.

■ WHERE do you usually work?

I work for the NHS as a nurse and I also teach in a variety of settings as a self-employed facilitator. I get upset when I read cases of neglect or mistreatment of patients. However, I really feel these are very rare and of course they make the news. The NHS is still wonderful and there are many fantastic private nursing and residential homes.

■ HOW did you get selected as a medic for the Olympics?

The Olympic application went in sometime in 2010 and I had an interview in Weymouth in February 2011. I did two events last year as part of the London Prepares series which were brilliant experiences; three-day eventing at Greenwich and sailing at Weymouth. This year I have also been on duty at the synchronised swimming at the Olympic Park.

■ HOW did you feel to be selected?

This is such an exciting, once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, to be with people who are as enthusiastic as me, learning from them and making good friendships. It is also about enjoying this amazing experience. I am proud to be part of this. It will be fantastic for Britain and leave a lasting legacy. It is a chance for anyone who wants to be involved, it will get the nation behind Team GB. What a fantastic year and a time to be patriotic, also with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. There will be lots of community spirit, parties and celebrations, and how exciting that the torch will be here.

■ WHAT will your responsibilities be?

I will be there to administer first aid to anyone who may need care and attention, to access and to refer on to the right treatment. We will be working in teams with different skill mixes. It has all come together and so much has been going on with the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games (LOCOG). They have been planning for years. I feel privileged that I have been a very small part of the run up to making this the best Olympic and Paralympic Games ever. I am grateful to my partner, as he doesn't mind me going off to London and leaving him with the boys. He is supportive and realises how much this means to me.

■ HOW have you been preparing for the Olympic Games?

Preparation has been orientation training at Wembley stadium, role specific training and venue training in London, plus my experience at events. I have worked with amazing, dedicated and skillful people. The medical and venue managers are super and inspirational.

■ WHAT are you most looking forward to?

I'm looking forward to the whole experience, the atmosphere, comradeship, the sport, the diversity and culture of the whole Games. I have always been fascinated by the Games the hard work and training the athletes put in, as well as their coaches and teams.

■ DO you take part in any sports yourself?

I'm afraid to say I do not take part in sport myself now. I used to compete in all equestrian disciplines as horses are one of my loves.

■ WHAT are your other personal interests?

It is so difficult to fit everything I wish to do into a jam-packed life. I live a lot of my dreams and aspirations by being with my family. They are everything to me and I have nurtured and loved them so much. My energies have been put into running a home, working in a job I adore and rearing my children. I have enjoyed amateur dramatics, taking part in many productions. Now I enjoy Zumba and my book club. My greatest joy now is to travel and explore. Writing would be another interest, but I haven't got very far with that yet!

■ WHAT do you like about living in Charmouth?

There are amazing people in Charmouth, so many things going on. They are friendly, interesting and want the best for our community.

■ WHAT would you change or add to the area?

What I would change is flytipping. We humans have been given so much beauty in nature and yet some people just want to blight it! Also noisy exhausts.

WEST BAY LOOKOUT PLANS SUNK

INITIAL plans to build a coastwatch lookout station in West Bay have been aborted. The future of the National Coastwatch Institute's (NCI) coverage of Lyme Bay has taken a knock after the organisation was forced to withdraw its planning application.

The NCI faces a race against time as a deadline to find another site nears.

The organisation needs to move from its temporary base when development at the Burton Bradstock site begins this October.

The district council's heritage team blocked plans for the lookout on East Pier despite NCI representatives working closely with West Dorset District Council for four months.

The team put the brakes on the plans because of concerns it would impact on the Grade Two listed pier and the fishing resort's conservation area.

It follows Bridport Town Council's decision to oppose plans for a lookout in March this year.

A question mark hangs over the future of the NCI lookout's next site— despite it receiving both the Declared Facility Status and the prestigious Queen's Award for Voluntary Service (QAVS) in the past two months.

Graeme Gemmill, NCI deputy station manager, said they were making sure the second application was watertight before submitting it.

He said: "Although we have been talking to various people in the district council we had obviously not been talking to enough people because the heritage people would not have allowed us to put anything up on the west pier, so the whole thing was an abortive attempt. We are going to submit another application but we don't know when because we are still clearing the air with the department at the district council.

"We want to make sure, if going through another application, it's not going to get tripped up by us not talking to everybody who has a say in the decision because we've already wasted about four months trying to get something through which never had a hope."

He added that they had identified a site in West Bay on top of an ice cream kiosk on the promenade, but negotiations were still ongoing.

Councillor Robert Gould, leader of WDDC, confirmed the planning application was withdrawn in response to concerns raised by planning and conservation officers.

He said: "There were concerns regarding the impact of the proposal on listed buildings and the conservation area in this very important and prominent location.

He added: "We are working with the applicant to try and find an alternative suitable location to enable a revised application to be submitted."

Since the temporary site opened in May 2010 it has been Declared Facility Status and is officially part of the UK search and rescue service.

It currently has just under 30 fully-trained volunteer watch-keepers who operate the lookout Friday to Monday.

The QAVS accolade is the highest award given to local volunteer groups across the UK and is the equivalent to the MBE for volunteer groups

■ Mr Gemmill, NCI deputy station manager, said they would make their second application for a lookout station watertight after being forced to withdraw the first

Consultation period on proposed day centre cuts

A SECOND round of consultations on proposed cuts to Bridport's day care centres are set to start this Friday.

Opinions on almost £20,000 of cuts earmarked for the Riverside and Fisherman's Arms day centres will be gauged during a month of public meetings.

The Fisherman's Arms is facing a £12,500 shortfall and the Riverside could be hit with £6,100 cuts, according to initial proposals agreed by members of Dorset County Council (DCC) cabinet committee in May.

The committee reviewed the plans for day centres before agreeing to give the go-ahead for further consultation.

DCC aims to save £600,000 in the next two years across the county through staff reduction by cutting vacant hours and the reconfiguration of staff to make services more viable.

The county council currently operates 24-day centres with a total of 922 places per day at a cost of around £6.5m each year.

The proposals were drawn up to ensure local day services offer good value and can cater for people's needs in the future, according to the county council.

But Bridport councillors have expressed concerns about the proposals.

Town and county Councillor Karl Wallace said he had received mixed information about the cuts.

He said: "There seems to be some confusion. Council officers are saying there will be cuts but councillor Andrew Cattaway [DCC cabinet member for adult social care] is saying there won't."

"At this stage I'm concerned that, although there's reassurance there will not be any cuts, with the economic climate things can change very rapidly."

He added: "I think they need to invest in day services more than ever before because of the demographic. People are living longer and people retire and move to this area, but we need appropriate resources in place.

"I would be cynical if any other outside bodies took on the services. Personally I think the NHS should take over adult social care because I think they have all the appropriate skills and carers already."

Councillor Cattaway said in May: "We know that day services are highly valued and make a vital contribution to meeting people's needs."

"We want to ensure these services can be maintained and developed for the future and that they are in line with people's needs."

● A Learning Disability and Vocational Services User and Carer Consultation meeting will take place at Bridport Day Centre on June 15th, from 10:30am to 12:30pm.

No 10 cafe bar

a closure order on the bar instead.

"On a Saturday night we are where the young people go, they are lively but we police it and the kids know the score: misbehave and you're put out the door."

He added: "At the moment I'm so depressed about things I'm considering closing the front door and going on holiday because this latest incident has really annoyed me."

The bar has been at centre of a number of concerns including drunken behaviour and overcrowding since opening 12 years ago.

In 2010 WDDC licensing committee license stopped people entering the venue after 1am, limited its capacity to 60 customers and demanded an effective CCTV was installed.

The closure order was from Section 19 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001. They can be used where unauthorised sale of alcohol is or has occurred in the last 24 hours.

In this instance the sale of alcohol would be unauthorised as was not in accordance with the licence (as the bar was not adhering to the conditions of the licence).

Food festival is underway

THE 8th Bridport Food Festival is in full swing with enough events throughout the week to satisfy the most famished food fanatic.

Attractions include food tasting at Felicity's Farm Shop, an 18th century tea party at the Town Hall and sausage making by England's oldest butchers, RJ Balson & Son.

The week culminates in a showcase event at Asker's Meadow on Saturday June 16th, with food stalls, cooking demonstrations, a farmers' market and a children's marquee among the draws.

Visitors to Asker's Meadow will also be given the chance to win gourmet prizes, including dinner for two at The White House, Charmouth, through the Local Food Links raffle in aid of Children in Need.

Kathy Dare, in charge of festival marketing, was delighted to see so many established Bridport producers joining forces with newer ventures to make the week such a success.

She said: "It's great to see older, traditional Bridport names like Balson's the butchers and Long's Fish Bar buying into the festival.

"We've also been trying to get people from the surrounding area involved, and that's gone well."

Tickets for the Asker's Meadow (Sea Road South) main event cost £2 in advance from Bridport Tourist Information, or £2.50 on the gate.

Children under 14 go free. All proceeds are ploughed back into the festival for next year's event.

DIAMOND JUBILEE GAVE US SENSE OF NATIONAL UNITY

AT A time when pessimism seems to be winning the day, the Diamond Jubilee certainly felt like a welcome dose of optimism.

Political, economic and social crises are emerging and evolving across Europe. The ties that bind many nations together are being tested and questioned to the extreme.

Glumness seems to be hanging over Europe, like a stubborn cloud caught on the Matterhorn, and the people of Britain are not exempt.

However, unlike others, we were given the opportunity to take the grandest of respites from such gloom and remind ourselves of something very important if we, as a nation, are to come out of the troubles stronger than when we entered.

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee provided the respite and what a magnificent few days.

The events that took place were full of grandeur and pomp, befitting 60 years of dedicated service by possibly the most popular monarch to date.

For me, the 1,000-strong flotilla set the tone of the Jubilee. In typical British fashion, the good weather failed to turn up to greet a once in a lifetime occasion.

However, despite the bad weather, the flotilla sailed through undeterred as people celebrated on the banks of the Thames and the 86-year-old Queen held a smile after four hours in the rain.

Perhaps, even more than the events themselves, the atmosphere will be remembered. There was an undeniable sense of shared identity, history and future – a sense of togetherness at every event.

Whether you were one of the million people to squeeze onto the Mall, or one of the people who took part in one of the many street parties in West Dorset, or one of those who simply watched the events unfold on TV, you were bound to feel the sense of national unity.

I suspect that, secretly, even the (very) few republicans that lined the banks of the Thames to protest would have recognised the profound ability of the monarchy to bind our nation together in a way that no politician could.

Although we all recognise that occasions like these won't, unfortunately, solve our problems we cannot dismiss their significance.

Bagehot once described a Royal wedding as "a brilliant edition of a universal fact".

The Jubilee gave us universal participation in a brilliant edition of our national pageant.

Extra police in town for Euro 2012

EXTRA police will be drafted into Bridport to deal with boozy football fans during each of England's European Championship games.

The Bridport section of Dorset police will be bolstered by extra officers to stamp out trouble throughout the tournament, which runs through to July 1st.

The actual number of police officers drafted into the market town has not been released.

The move comes after previous football tournaments had caused increases in drunken and anti-social behaviour.

People caught committing public order offences or alcohol-fuelled violence in the town centre will be arrested and dealt with accordingly, warn police.

Officers will also clamp down on

by Paul Crompton

paul.crompton@pemedial.co.uk

domestic violence incidents, which traditionally soar during major football tournaments.

During the nights that England play officers will carry out bail checks on known offenders of domestic violence to combat the problem.

Mike Darby, Bridport Neighbourhood Inspector, said Dorset Police wanted people to enjoy the Euro 2012 tournament but to do so safely.

He said: "West Dorset is one of the safest places in the whole of the country to reside. However, extra police are available and on duty if needed.

"Extra staff will be on duty in Bridport Section on the dates that England matches take place.

"Dorset Police is keen that people enjoy the games and remember to drink responsibly."

Dorset Police Superintendent Mick Rogers said they recognised that it was only ever a small minority of people that caused trouble, and that the vast majority of fans will enjoy watching the games without any problems.

But he warned: "Anyone who thinks they can use the Euro 2012 tournament as an excuse to get drunk and commit crime needs to realise that this will not be tolerated."

He added: "With the increase in alcohol consumption that often occurs during these big football tournaments, there is a risk that incidents of violent crime and domestic abuse will increase.

"I would strongly encourage anyone who becomes a victim of domestic abuse to report it to Dorset

Police so that we can take action.

"We have specially trained officers available to support victims and to investigate these types of offences. Anyone who commits domestic violence will not only face a possible prison sentence, but they will also have to live with the stigma of being an offender of this appalling crime."

Anyone who suffers domestic violence is encouraged to report it to Dorset Police straight away on 101.

● The Euro 2012 tournament coincides with the summer drink and drug driving campaign and members of the public are being urged not to get behind the wheel after drinking any alcohol while watching the football.

The tournament is set to run until Sunday, July 1st.

This week's crime update

A MAN was charged with shop lifting from a shop on East Street, Bridport.

The 42-year-old from West Bay was arrested on suspicion of theft of alcohol and food from the Spar in Bridport on May 22nd. He has been bailed to court.

A SUSPECTED drug dealer was arrested in Bridport and later released on bail.

The 21-year-old man of no fixed address was arrested for possession of a controlled drugs with intent to supply on May 23rd.

A TEENAGE girl was arrested for common assault on May 26th. The 17-year-old from Bridport has been released on bail.

A 53-year-old man from Chideock was arrested for driving whilst intoxicated on May 28th. He was later released on bail.

Police are calling on anyone with information about two thefts in Bridport to get in touch.

A GARAGE in Foundry Lane was entered and a Black and Decker drill and a JCB Jigsaw stolen some time during the weekend of May 26th and 27th.

The offenders also stole canned food and food stuff from the freezer.

NUMBER plates were stolen from two vans that were parked on St Andrews Road overnight on May 26th.

● PC Sarah Corrin, Bridport Town Community Beat Officer, said: "If you have any information regarding the above offences or any other crimes, then please come forward and help us with our enquiries.

"It may be your evidence, which successfully secures a conviction. Instead of accepting that crime is part of the Bridport society, let's give the courts the facts and allow them to decide."

Anyone with information should call the police on 101, or Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Musicathon returns for fourth year

■ NATHANAEL Wormleighton

■ THE Rock Island Skiffle Group

A CHARITY event hit the right note when it helped raise hundreds of pounds in just a few hours in Bridport, writes CHRIS DENNE.

Around 80 performers made it a day to remember when they packed into the United Reform church for the annual Musicathon event.

The fourth Musicathon was organised by the Friends of West Dorset Music Centre.

More than 150 people watched the performers aged between seven and 80-years-old sing and play various instruments during the five hour event.

Around £800 has been raised so far with all money being split between Home-Start West Dorset and Bridport Young Performers Scholarship.

Each group or soloist was given a ten-minute slot between 9am and 5pm.

Special Bride Valley concert at school

A SPECIAL concert celebrating the Bride Valley in song and story will be held at Burton Bradstock School.

The ValeBride Band will present 'The Killick Stone' on Sunday, July 8th at 3:30pm.

The Killick Stone weaves together the stories of two girls separated by 150 years of village history but bound together by the rope and stone that anchors the village to the Dorset coast.

All profits for the concert will go towards Home-Start West Dorset – a charity which gives friendship, emotional and practical support to families.

Tickets cost £8 and includes a glass of wine/soft drinks and nibbles (under 12s tickets are £5).

They are available in advance from Barbara 01308 897389 or from Bridport Music Shop.

Hospital open day

Green light for jubilee name

A PIECE of land is set to be renamed the Jubilee Green after Bridport councillors waived through a request from a community group.

Bridport Community Orchard asked for the land at the top Park Road to be renamed after it was planted with 25 native species apple trees in March.

The group asked the town council's Environment and Social Wellbeing committee to consider proposals to rename the land in Allington to commemorate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Ownership of the 1,200 square metre patch of land overlooking the town was transferred to Bridport Town Council from the district council.

It is hoped the rejuvenation of the land will increase bio-diversity and attract wildlife such as birds, butterflies, and bees as well as residents.

The full town council will ratify the decision on June 26th.

New coastal app

Tributes paid to air ambulance volunteers

TRIBUTES to the volunteers who help keep the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance going were during for National Volunteers Week.

Staff from the charity paid tribute to its team of much valued volunteers as the annual campaign celebrated the contribution that millions of volunteers make across the UK.

Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance fundraising manager, Tina Viksna, said their volunteers' efforts are very much appreciated.

She said: "We are extremely fortunate to have a group of local volunteers who work tirelessly in support of our Air Ambulance."

"Their hard work and commitment to the charity is exceptional and without their support we would find it difficult to fulfil our community commitments during the year."

During the summer the service is represented by volunteers at events and presentations while they help to raise awareness for the charity that needs to raise £4,000 per day to keep flying.

With no direct government or National Lottery funding, the charity rely on the generosity of the public for support and needs to raise £1.4 million per year to keep flying.

More information about the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and how to join their team of volunteers can be found by visiting www.dsairambulance.org.uk, emailing info@dsairambulance.org.uk or by calling 01823 669604.

Town council's energy usage to be subject of master's thesis

A STUDENT is set to investigate Bridport Town Council's use of energy.

Usage levels will be monitored over the summer by Brian Atkinson, who is using the authority as the topic of his master's thesis in 'The Green Economy'.

Councillors heard the Bournemouth University student's plans during their Environment and Social Wellbeing committee meeting on June 6th. He will then deliver a report to councillors in September on his investigation.

Mr Atkinson told councillors the authority's fuel emissions were heading in the right direction based on his initial calculations.

He said: "It looks like emissions are falling and that's partly due to the fact that the heating in the Mountfield building has been switched off, and dealing with drafts seems to be doing a lot of good."

"But it looks too good to be true so I will investigate it further. The downturn in emissions cannot go on forever but it's a good sign."

He added: "Hopefully by the time I've got a better idea about it all in September I will have some concrete proposals."

Mr Atkinson told the committee the council should be looking to reduce emissions by around 10 tonnes each year by 2020.

Councillors were told that if the council carried on as usual it would be responsible for more than 40 tonnes of carbon emissions each year.

The council's target is 30.72 tonnes a year – a 30 per cent reduction on 2005's 40.89 tonnes levels.

Councillor David Rickard said the target would need to be revised now the town hall was being used more after its £1.4 million refurbishment.

He said: "We have just got the town hall on stream which was a very cold building and as a result was very rarely used, but now we have good new heating and insulation set up there so it's going to be used a lot more."

"This means it will add to our energy bill I'm sure, but we've tried to off set it by having UV panels fitted in Plottingham."

"So I'd like to see something in the report which makes that clear, you cannot compare like for like in quite the same way."

Jubilee support

IN THE Annual Report of the Beaminster Town Council, delivered to every house in Beaminster in April, I wrote that I felt that it was time for Beaminster to have a bit of fun and that the Queen's Diamond Jubilee might be the right opportunity.

A Street Party was planned. Beaminster residents, as usual, did not let the town down and this grew into two days of fun with a church service, dedication of the new tree in the playing field, picnics and teas for anyone wanting to see the pageant and finishing with a wonderful street party and lighting of the beacon.

All of this takes willing hands and I should like to thank everyone who came forward to help - from the representatives of organisations who swapped ideas about events to those who wrestled with tables and to the young people from the youth centre who helped Gil Streets build the beacon which brought the Jubilee to an end.

In particular, I should like to thank the indefatigable tea ladies - Christine at the pageant and Mary and Edna at the street party - and those of you who overwhelmed us with food!

There is one more person without whom I could not have coped - my partner, Chris Turner - who was fantastic and did all of the hard work, gave me a cuddle when all seemed doomed to failure and was always there to help. He is the real hero!

AT THIS week's Bridport Food Festival, Local Food Links Ltd, a community based catering company providing schools meals across Dorset, will back a national campaign, Fair and Square, to ensure that every child in poverty gets a free school meal.

Half of all school-age children living in poverty are not getting free school meals - and so miss out on a nutritious and healthy meal every day.

Many of them aren't entitled to a free school meal simply because their parents, regardless of how little they earn, work more than 16 hours a week.

Free school meals are worth on average about £11 every week per child and have been shown to help children stay healthy and improve behaviour and learning in the classroom.

Local Food Links will join the Children's Society, amongst many other organisations, to collect signatures to petition government to extend free school meal entitlement to children from the poorest families, whether their parents work or not.

We're passionate about school meals and believe that every child, irrespective of family income, deserves a nourishing school dinner.

If you agree, we'd like to invite you to sign the petition at our stand at the Bridport Food Festival on Saturday, June 16th or go to www.childrenssociety.org.uk/fairandsquare

Mayor's personal views should be put to one side

I VISITED Bridport last month and picked up a copy of the View from Bridport newspaper (Issue 312, dated May 23rd).

I was very shocked to read Councillor David Rickard was refusing to attend the church service to mark the Queen's Jubilee.

As Mayor of the town it is his main function to represent the people of his town whatever his private view is. He should do the honourable thing and resign.

I have been a councillor for many years and held the post of Chairman of the Council twice. I was ever vigilant that I did not project my personal view and was ever mindful that I represented the people who voted me onto the Council.

I think the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, who represents the Queen, should be advised of his action because it is a direct snub to the Sovereign.

Borough Gardens open day

RESIDENTS are being urged to attend an open day today (Wednesday) and help shape the future of the Borough Gardens.

The 'secret garden' off the Tanyard in South Street and Gundry Lane is a solace for residents and workers on their lunch breaks.

Now a community project to improve the gardens has been set up by Bridport Town Council, housing group Magna, residents and landscape architect Aileen Shackell.

The aim is to make the gardens a place cherished and respected by residents and visitors alike.

The open day runs from 11am to 4pm today at the Borough Gardens.

Cream tea to raise funds for lifeboats

A FUNDRAISING 'Cream Tea in the Garden' is being held in Walditch this weekend.

The event on Shute Haye is being held to raise funds for the Royal National Lifeboat Institute.

There will be a woodland and garden walk, followed by a cream tea and bric-a-brac, cakes, plant sales and souvenirs for sale.

There will also be a rolling horse and other games for children.

The event will be held on Sunday, June 17th from 2:30pm to 5pm.

Chideock playing field renamed for jubilee

A HISTORIC playing field has been entrusted to the Chideock community as part of ongoing events to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

council in 1938 by Walter P Grafton in memory of his wife. Now, three quarters of a century later, his grandson Will Grafton has safeguarded the future of the recreation ground by bringing it under the protection of the Playing Fields Association.

The area has also been renamed the Queen Elizabeth II

Field in honour of the Queen's jubilee.

To commemorate the event Mr Grafton unveiled a plaque in a ceremony attended by Chideock Parish Council members and village residents.

Mr Grafton said: "It's really important to stress that the playing field has been given to the community. The parish council will continue to be stewards (of the playing fields) for the people of Chideock to enjoy."

Police prepare for summer drink driving campaign

DORSET Police are gearing up for its summer clampdown on drink driving. Drivers are being warned they face a prison sentence if caught drink driving on Dorset's roads, as the month-long summer drink and drug driving campaign begins during June.

There will be increased traffic patrols and roadside checks taking place across Dorset during the month of June, as the force's campaign runs in tandem with the national Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) campaign.

Every driver that is involved in a collision during the campaign will be breath tested, irrespective of whether they are suspected of drink driving or not.

Chief Inspector Matt Butler, head of Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said the prevention of drink and drug driving was a key element in the effort to reduce death and injury on the roads of Dorset.

He said: "Drink and drug driving remains a significant contributory factor in road deaths. Currently around 25 per cent of fatalities within Dorset involve alcohol.

"It is proving difficult to change attitudes amongst some motorists, but those who decide to risk the safety of others will be arrested and prosecuted. If a member of the public suspects someone is going to drive under the influence of alcohol or drugs, they should dial 999 immediately and report the details to the police so that we can intercept that vehicle.

St Michael's Trading Estate – the Hayward brothers have their say

THE two brothers who plan to breathe new life into Bridport's run-down St Michael's Trading Estate have hit back at what they call misguided and inaccurate information about their intentions.

Norman Hayward, 73, and his brother Clive, 74, whose family have owned the site for 44 years, seek to redevelop part of the estate to provide housing including affordable homes.

Contrary to statements from some of the more vociferous opponents to these plans, the amount of lettable space given up for housing is less than 10 per cent of the total site area.

Also the brothers claim their critics have overlooked the fact that the housing element will allow for significant investment in the remainder of the trading estate.

Norman said: "The development will enable us to raise the funds to reinvest in much needed renovation and upgrading to the rest of the estate while at the same time maintaining the affordable rents that are so critical to the tenants and their future employment security."

In advance of an outline planning application, scheduled to be heard next Thursday by the West Dorset District Council Development Control (Planning) Committee, the brothers have told West Dorset councillors in a letter: "We have owned and managed the estate through many difficult times over the past four decades.

"We have no hidden agenda and are committed to the estate and its long term future.

"We want to move St Michael's on to the next stage of its growth and development.

"This is something that has been high on our agenda since 2007 when we were approached and encouraged by officers at West Dorset District Council to submit a joint planning application as our first submission for redeveloping the site."

When the brothers purchased the site in 1968 it had existing outline planning permission to build houses but their father, Norman Senior, decided against that option in order to create a 'seed bed' to enable small local businesses to set up on their own at low rents and favourable terms.

Many of them, such as Top Gear and Clipper Teas moved on to bigger and better things. This approach was forward looking and ahead of its time.

Norman said: "We have always been very sympathetic to the aims and aspirations of our tenants and we have tried to follow the ethos our father began.

Worthwhile

"Indeed, the majority of our 80 tenants happily acknowledge the support we have given them for many years particularly in relation to their low rents; a policy which we intend to maintain.

"We feel St Michael's has served a really worthwhile purpose and we are committed to continue it in its regenerated form.

"Our aim is to continue this support should our planning application go through which is why we need an opportunity at this stage to tell our side of the story and to correct harmful and, in some cases, mischievous misinformation.

Clive Hayward, who is based in the Hayward & Co office on the estate, said: "I work closely with our tenants on a daily basis and it is an amicable relationship.

"I believe our plans will help to further that relationship through greatly improved working conditions. It is clear that the current state of the buildings is less than satisfactory."

The brothers believe many of the claims made by the critics of the plans have to be challenged.

"For example," said Norman, "we firmly believe the creation of more high quality space will provide more jobs, not fewer.

"The vintage market can be resumed on the new cattle market car park, and artists who operate in the Bridport Industries building can continue to do so and will not be affected.

"There is no hard evidence that tourism will be affected, and regeneration of the site will improve the arrival point in the town from the coach station.

"On the issue of the principle of residential development, the estate is allocated as a housing site in the West Dorset Local Plan."

The Haywards' plan is for 35 affordable homes, 66 houses, four maisonettes and commercial units. The Red Brick Cafe, the Auction House and the artists' studios would all be retained.

Two seriously rundown properties, the Stover and Lilliput buildings, would be re-built and renovated and existing tenants would move in to these from elsewhere on the estate.

Norman Hayward added: "We are focused on helping the tenants and securing their future. We are totally committed to the long term future of St Michael's and the estate is not for sale.

"The plans submitted fully comply with the government's new national planning policy guidelines, and we believe the positives in our planning application far outweigh the negatives."

Bridport news briefs...

Concerns over affordable housing

A LETTER outlining concerns over affordable housing in West Dorset will be sent to the area's MP by Bridport Town Council.

The decision to write to Oliver Letwin MP was taken during the town council's Environment and Social Wellbeing committee.

Concerns were raised at the meeting that a loop hole allowing homeowners to buy a house earmarked for affordable housing and then sell it to a private buyer was undermining attempts to cater for the 3,000 people on West Dorset's housing waiting list.

Councillor David Rickard said government legislation was cutting of the legs from beneath them in term of affordable housing.

He said: "We need to write to Oliver Letwin and point out his department of government is undermining all the good work done in West Dorset to catch up on affordable housing quotas in one foul swoop."

Vintage show

MOSTERTON Vintage Show is set to take place over the weekend of June 23rd and 24th.

The event features classic steam engines, stationary engines, a road run, dog show, crafts stalls, kids rides and vintage commercial. There will also be live music on the Friday and Saturday night.

Tickets are £5 (£2.50 for children).

Colfox filmmakers scoop top award

MONTHS of hard work paid off for Bridport students when they scooped a top film award.

The film fans from Sir John Colfox School took the top honour in the "Best Pictures and Sound" category of the Kids Witness News film competition.

They now have an anxious wait to see if they go through to the European finals and possible the world finals.

The Colfox team won the award for their documentary and were nominated in four other categories - more than any of the other 15 schools which competed.

The team is now set to attend the World finals at The Connaught Rooms in London where they will have dinner and watch the work of the other finalists.

Student Eden Taylor said it was one of the best experiences she could have hoped for.

She said: "It made me realise that I would like to have a career in the media and possibly editing when I am older. If I had the opportunity to do it again next year I wouldn't hesitate."

The team worked on the project for nine months - interviewing sports stars and travelling to places including Poole, Taunton and London to conduct interviews.

The KWN awards are an annual event with the UK awards taking place in the Midlands each year as a central meeting point for all the schools involved.

The eventual Grand Prix winners go through to the European awards in Germany and then the winners from the European awards battle against schools from around the world.

Teacher Rebecca Mather said the Colfox team had done exceptionally well for its first year in the prestigious competition.

She said: "There were 15 schools competing in 2012 and only five awards up for grabs."

"We were so happy to win "Best Pictures and Sound" for our documentary - we were told it was a highly professional piece and with shots that would not be out of place in a real BBC film."

She added: "Overall it was a fabulous experience for all involved and something we hope to build on for the 2013 competition - which will only have ten schools from the UK selected to take part in."

Call to extend Local Plan deadline

CALLS to extend the deadline of the draft local plan consultation by a month have been made by a Bridport councillor.

Concerns were raised that district council officials will be busy with the Olympics during August and not be able to give the consultation a full attention.

The issue was raised during Bridport Town Council's Environment and Social Wellbeing committee meeting.

Councillor Ros Kayes said at the June 6th meeting: "I think they should put an extra month into the consultation, but they won't.

The town council has established a Local Plan Working Group, to look in detail at the draft West Dorset District Local Plan.

The plan is out for public consultation from June 1st to July 27th.

Chelsea Pensioners Visit Fairfield House Residential Care Home

ON Tuesday 5th June, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, Fairfield House had the pleasure of a visit from two Chelsea Pensioners Stan and Alex.

It was a great honour for us to have them join us for lunch and many of our residents enjoyed their company. It was a great opportunity to learn about their busy lives and all the great work they do around the country.

We also hosted a Jubilee party on Tuesday that featured our very own Talent show and the fantastic local harpist Jane Saunders. At Fairfield House we also offer Day Care to the local community so that even more people are able to come and join in with the activities and events we organise. We have many exciting events coming up including an Olympic themed event; if you would like to find out more about our Day Care please contact us.

Fairfield House welcomes all guests, if you would like to arrange a visit please get in touch.

Sun shines on annual dog show

AS reported recently, The Rotary Club of Brit Valley could not have wished for a better day on which to hold its annual dog show.

In addition there was plenty for the large crowd to enjoy including two demonstrations from the Portland Dog Agility Team as well as a number of trade and charity stands plus children's rides, bowling for a pig and a popular football game.

The Rotary club provided delicious hot food throughout the afternoon as well as teas and coffees, and there was even an inflatable pub supplied by Marquibar of Chideock.

As always judging was very difficult, but Pedigree Class judge Joanna Boughton-White awarded the Jesse James Cup for the best overall entry to a sprightly and neat Airedale terrier bitch called Hari owned by Steve and Micky Schurek.

Sylvia Coggle, chose Fancy Dress Class winners Milo and Milly and their owner Simon Graziani, sponsored by the Brit Valley Rotary Club, the Ron Short Cup for the best overall Fun Class entry; the two dogs dressed as a lion and a witch and Simon as the wardrobe!

The two winning entries then went head-to-head to decide Best in Show and both judges gave this honour to Hari who was presented with the Daisy Perpetual Cup.

The show included the latest round of the Buckham Fair Rescue re-homed dog championship sponsored by Girling and Bowditch, and Kitson and Trotman.

The winner of the Best Rescued class was 16-year-old Flyte a cross bred Staffordshire bull terrier owned by Hazel Thorp of Weymouth who was rescued as a one-year-old after being thrown out of a car.

He is a grade five agility dog and took part in the display earlier in the day.

The pedigree rescue winner was Rosemary Booth's

Maddy an 18 month old Border Terrier who had been re-homed by Border Terrier Rescue.

Once again the show was well supported and the Rotary Club is indebted to the main sponsor, The Letting Factory, which provided the main funding. They would also like to thank the Haddon House Hotel which donated all the food for the refreshment tent and Dorwest Herbs for vouchers for the prizewinners.

The club would also like to thank all the advertisers who supported the show as well as the Melplash Show committee for the use of the field and all who made the show such a success.

RESULTS

What does the future hold for Bridport's St. Michael's Trading Estate?

IS IT THIS?

THIS?

On June 21st an outline planning application is due to be heard by WDDC into plans to re-develop and upgrade St Michael's Trading Estate which is now acknowledged to be run-down and in need of refurbishment.

Yes, there are objections to the plans. But are the majority of those objections based on fact? The site owners, Norman and Clive Hayward, believe many objections are mistaken and based on inaccurate information.

- FACT – The plans provide for 35 affordable homes, 66 houses and 4 maisonettes on mainly under-used land plus new commercial units.
- FACT – Funding from the re-development will be used to improve and upgrade the existing commercial buildings.
- FACT – Affordable rents for businesses on the trading estate will be maintained.
- FACT – Creation of additional high quality space will provide more jobs on the St Michael's site, not fewer.
- FACT – New homes on the site does not mean a reduction in the number of employment opportunities.
- FACT – The owners intend to reinstate the vintage market.
- FACT – The plans are designed to upgrade the estate, move St Michael's into the next stage of its development and enhance the working environment.
- FACT – The plans acknowledge and respect the important industrial heritage of this site.
- FACT – The River Brit 'island' will be handed over for community and public use and as a nature conservation area.
- FACT – The Hayward brothers have owned and managed the estate since 1968. It is not for sale and they continue to be totally committed to its long term future.

Victory in 'fantastic final' for Bridport Primary School team

BRIDPORT Primary School won the Kenway cup after defeating St Catherines in a final described by organiser Lee Cuff as "fantastic."

The two schools are less than half a mile apart, meaning the final of the under 11's football competition was a real local derby, with hundreds of spectators packing the main stand of Bridport FC's ground to cheer on the teams.

Bridport Primary were worthy winners with a goal from Jayden Brown after six minutes and a second from James Cox who fired home an impressive drive with what was virtually the last kick of the game.

St Catherines, who had to change their goalkeeper half way through the first half, counter-attacked valiantly throughout, but were unable to force a breakthrough in a game that was well refereed by Mike Thompson.

The 60-year-old west Dorset football competition has been beefed up under the stewardship of Mr Cuff. He has introduced a group phase to give the teams more to play for, and has instated a trophy and runners-up medals for the losing finalists.

He said: "Well done to both teams for taking part in such a fantastic final... I also want to thank every one of the 16 teams who took part in this year's Kenway Cup. Without them there would be no competition."

Little Groves Nursery

JUNE is a great time to look at where you have gaps in your garden, as buying plants now means you still get to enjoy them all summer long (when it finally gets here!). At Little Groves we still have plenty of summer bedding to plant up your pots, tubs and baskets. Our polytunnel is still crammed full of vegetable plants, such as salads, courgettes & squashes, peppers, cucumbers, kale and much more. And remember there are loads of veg that can be grown in containers if you're short of space. It's also a lovely time for flower borders, here at Little Groves those just bursting into flower include Penstemons, Gerniaums, Salvias, Geums, Verbascum and Scabious to name just a few! Whether the gaps are in sun or shade, in your rockery, veg patch or prairie bed- we can help you fill them!

Ashley Cooper Turf & Transport

WITH your finances being stretched so tightly these days, spending money on your garden may not seem important. But, with going out and holidays being so expensive, maybe your hard earned cash can be more productive at home. A beautiful, well tended outdoor area can add some financial value to your home, but more value can be added to your life if it is somewhere you want to relax and spend quality time with your family and friends. Whilst the main core of our business is good quality turf, we can also help with compost, topsoil, barks, mulches, sleepers and many other items you may need to create your own unique garden. Ashley Cooper Turf & Transport is a small reliable, family business which has operated from Bridport for 20 years. We can supply the products for DIY installation, or why not let us provide you with a quote to come along and do the work for you. We also supply to trade customers too.

ACTT has many years experience with private households to large commercial sites, including private gardens, community areas, football pitches and national holiday parks.

With all this in mind - can we be of assistance to you?

Sherborne Turf

FROM our location in the picturesque village of Trent, Sherborne Turf has been supplying the gardeners of Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Wiltshire with quality lawn turf and garden products for over 35 years. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base, negating the need for potentially harmful netting that could pose a trip hazard and be costly to remove.

Supplying the local area with fresh turf cut to order, low 'turf miles' mean our grass is green in more ways than one!

At Sherborne Turf, our product range has expanded to meet the needs of our customers. Garden soils are stored under cover in winter ready for delivery in bulk bags, along with a variety of top dressing, bark, mulch and compost for the serious gardener.

Deliveries are made using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf and associated products. While the trade standard for deliveries is 'kerbside', our drivers understand this is not always practical for your gardens, and so we will always endeavour to place your items as conveniently as possible for you, subject to suitable access.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the items we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

For a beautiful new kitchen just change the doors

www.dreamdoors.co.uk

Dream Doors Dorset is a Franchise of a National Company. It is owned and run by Andy & Shelley Stewart as a family business with reliable National branding & backing. Their expert staff will help plan your work, help you decide what materials to choose and explain what will happen in your kitchen.

Andy and Shelley Stewart, last year made it to the final three in the South West and South Wales regional heats for Franchisee of the Year Awards. Says Andy: "We're delighted to have made it this far. We know there are over 37,000 franchisees in the UK, so to be considered among the best is a real honour."

By replacing the doors, drawers, and if chosen new worktops, appliances and accessories such as plinths, cornice and pelmet a completely new kitchen can be achieved.

A kitchen facelift can save you up to 50% compared to a new kitchen and of course it's more environmentally friendly. But how does this work? A door makeover saves what is not broken such as the main structure of the kitchen including the carcasses and simply replaces the visible elements you want to change. In addition Dream Doors can also assist with minor re-designs and additional carcasses through to new kitchens. So flexibility and choice is the name of their game.

Why not transform your old or dated kitchen into something fresh and attractive. You can pick a colour, any colour, a style, any style and as the doors and carcasses are made to measure non-standard sizes are not a problem.

So whether you are looking for a contemporary, traditional, or a country kitchen it can all be carried out in only a couple of days and without the usual hassle, disruption and upheaval.

* Terms & conditions apply, ask for full details. Not available in conjunction with any other offer.

Why not visit the showroom to see what's possible and view the extensive range of styles and finishes, worktop choices and the range of NEFF appliances and Franke sink and taps.

Dorset's Largest Creative Celebration continues to delight the masses...

WE'VE had a blast over the last few weeks here at Maritime Mix! A packed out performance for Marc Yeats' Sturzstrom at Beer Quarry Caves, popular stone carving workshops at The Drill Hall in Portland and the opening of the fascinating exhibition Plastics For Gold at The Museum of Design in Plastics in Bournemouth and there's still more great events on the horizon...

Keep on rolling, rolling, rolling...

As we highlighted in our last update RedBall UK, will be rolling into Weymouth & Portland at the end of the month. From the 21st-24th June this fun and interactive art installation has now got five confirmed locations. This international large-scale public art project will be making an appearance in St Alban St, St Thomas St, Town Bridge & the Esplanade in Weymouth and Cove House Inn on Portland. Where will you see it? If you take a picture of it, make sure you send to us and we will post them on our Facebook and Twitter pages.

Be a part of Creating The Spectacle!

Come and participate in a procession to celebrate the new-found freedom of the underwater wheelchair as it takes a dramatic plunge into and passage across the mouth of the Fleet Lagoon!

The event, in partnership with Dinosaurs Not Allowed and local schools, Beechcroft & Wyke Regis, is being filmed for screening as part of the pool performances during the Paralympics in August/September 2012. All participants need to register and be prepared to be filmed as part of the event! The dress code is RED and will be meeting at the car park of Ferrybridge Inn, Fleet Lagoon 27th June 12 noon. It is a free event but there are limited places. Make your booking via website www.werefreewheeling.org.uk

It's a Collective Spirit with The Boat Project by Lone Twin

Over the Jubilee Weekend 1st-5th June we saw the beautiful Collective Spirit moored at Weymouth & Portland National Sailing Academy. A thousand stories and memories represented in donated pieces of wood make up this unique boat. Enjoying the Skandia Sailing For Gold Regatta in Weymouth last weekend the boat was certainly a popular attraction. It is continuing on its voyage around the South coast and returns to Weymouth on the 1st - 11th August 2012 so don't miss out! Trinity Road, Weymouth Harbour. Free Event. www.theboatproject.com

Coastal Voices continue to sing!

Enjoy the next instalment of the inspired Coastal Voices project at Lighthouse Poole 8th July. In this unique concert our OLYMPIC singers come together for the first time to perform all four new commissions created for and to celebrate the Jurassic Coast. Choirs and voices from Exmouth to Bournemouth will perform new arrangements by Sonia Slany of cult classics by Nick Cave, the geologically-inspired sound world of Marc Yeats, Songs for a Coastal Wind by John Surman and On Golden Cap by John K Miles inspired by work with Billy Bragg, B Sharp and young people of West Dorset & East Devon. Coastal Voices is a landmark project bringing hundreds of voices together for performances across Dorset and Devon as part of London 2012. Tickets available here <http://www.lighthousepoole.co.uk/coastal-voices>

The Chalk Legends take to new heights!

Following the success of their concert in May, Chalk Legends returns for an additional concert at St Catherine's Chapel, a unique location in Abbot'sbury. Enjoy Stephen McNeff Songs & Sammy Hurden's Jurassic Journey on the 17th June 2012 1pm in this stunning location in Dorset! For more details visit www.chalklegends.com

An absolutely spiffing show!

FOLLOWING sell-out seasons at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2010 and 2011, their first national tour and a West End season, The Fitzrovia Radio Hour tours the UK with a new show.

Celebrating an age when radio was brand new and radio drama was stuffed with more stereotypes and cut-glass accents than afternoon tea at Lords, the show's writers/performers use new material to recreate the spirit of vintage radio plays for a modern audience.

The show will include three rip-roaring tales: George Albin & the War of the Roses, Nazi Firemen in Westminster and Tin! All are new yet delightfully reminiscent of the golden age of radio. Witness vegetables simulating fistfights, thrill to a whisky bottle which is a dead ringer for a Nazi midget submarine and gasp at a watering can playing the roaring Atlantic. All these sound effects, and more, are created live on stage! This new show is sponsored by Clipstone Ceylon Tea!

The Fitzrovians revel in the glamour of a bygone era, from costume and performance to props. They transport audiences to their unique universe - a wonderful imagining of how commercial 1940s radio should have been done. The Fitzrovia Radio Hour lovingly satirise the casual imperialism and stiff upper lips of the period, throwing them into relief with physical comedy and a modern twist to produce a heady comic cocktail.

The troupe began in 2008, when founding members restaged vintage radio plays from America. They enjoyed wearing pencil moustaches so much that they were inspired to write original material in a period style. Since then they have won widespread acclaim and performed extensively to sold-out houses including a season at Trafalgar Studios and a year-long residency at Shakespeare's Globe, London (Swan at The Globe / Underglobe).

The Fitzrovia Radio Hour is written and performed by Jon Edgley Bond, Tom Malaburn, Phil Mulryne, Martin Pengelly and Alex Ratcliffe. The show is directed by Phoebe Barran and the cast includes Fiona Sheehan and Natalie Ball.

* Please note that some of the material performed may vary from this list: The Fitzrovia Radio Hour will occasionally perform alternative stories to those listed as part of the shows during the Spring 2012 tour.

Tickets for the show are £10/£9/£8 concessions, from: Thursday, June 21st Marine Theatre Lyme Regis Box Office 01297 442394; Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday, June 22nd Box Office: 01305 266926; Saturday, June 23rd Bridport Arts Centre Box Office 01308 424204

Suggs' mad-life crisis

STRAIGHT from the roof of Buckingham Palace to raising the roof at the Electric Palace comes the one and only Suggs. On Thursday, July 19th you have to opportunity to get up close and personal with the Madness frontman on an emotional rollercoaster that's part music and part personal vision, part music hall extravaganza.

Suggs was 50 in January. The concept for this show came about when he was lying in the bath, on his birthday, nursing an epic hangover from the celebrations the night before. There was the most almighty crash, he jumped out of the water and there, lying amid shards of broken glass, was his cat, now extinct.

'I was 50. My kids had recently left home and now the cat was dead. I was really upset. It triggered a deluge of emotion, an event that somehow tipped me over the edge. I began to consider my own mortality and, out of that, the idea for exploring my own past somehow crystallised.' And so the show was born.

Join him in the front seat on a unique journey through the ups and downs of an astonishing thirty-year career spanning pop music, radio, television, film and the meat processing industry. Witness Suggs cannon ball to the heights of pop success, stumble and plummet down through the trap-door of failure and then trampoline back up to catch the passing trapeze of showbusiness success. A hilarious (and sometimes sad) story of a life he can still not quite believe is happening. With musical accompaniment and uncalled for interjection from Deano, his loyal manservant-cum-pianist.

Suggs has natural comic timing and tells his story with wit and grace in this hugely enjoyable evening. Doors open for Suggs at 6.30pm on Thursday 19th July with the show starting at 7.30pm. Tickets £24.50 plus bf are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901 or online from www.seetickets.com. You'd have to be mad to miss this amazing opportunity so book your tickets now, before they sell out!

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

AS we are rapidly approaching Father's Day again, we feature three old poems from America about dads. I wonder if one of them might remind you of your father.

WHEN FATHER CARVES THE DUCK

by Ernest Vincent Wright

We all look on with anxious eyes,
When father carves the duck,
And mother almost always sighs,
When father carves the duck.
Then all of us prepare to rise,
And hold our bibs before our eyes,
And be prepared for some surprise,
When father carves the duck.

He braces up and grabs a fork
When'er he carves a duck,
And won't allow a soul to talk,
Until he's carved the duck.
The fork is jabbed into the sides,
Across the breast the knife he slides,
While every careful person hides
From flying chips of duck.

The platter's always sure to slip,
When father carves the duck,
And how it makes the dishes skip!
Potatoes fly amuck!
The squash and cabbage leap in space,
We get some gravy in our face,
And father mutters Hindu grace
When'er he carves a duck.

We then have learned to walk around
The dining room and pluck

From off the window-sills and walls
Our share of father's duck.
While father growls and blows and jaws,
And swears the knife was full of flaws,
And mother jeers at him because
He couldn't carve a duck.

ONLY A DAD

by Edgar A. Guest (1916)

Only a dad with a tired face,
Coming home from the daily race,
Bringing little of gold or fame
To show how well he has played the game;
But glad in his heart that his own rejoice
To see him come and to hear his voice.

Only a dad with a brood of four,
One of ten million men or more
Plodding along in the daily strife,
Bearing the whips and the scorns of life,
With never a whimper of pain or hate,
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Toiling, striving from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way,
Silent whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a dad but he gives his all,
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing with courage stern and grim
The deeds that his father did for him.
This is the line that for him I pen:
Only a dad, but the best of men.

SHABBY OLD DAD

by Anne Campbell

His collar is frayed, and his trousers unpressed;
He's not a bit fussy the way he is dressed,
But he's always ready to help out the rest -
Shabby old Dad!

His shirts have queer stripes, and they're old-fashioned quite;
His ties are in strings, and they're never tied right.
His last year's straw hat is a terrible sight -
Shabby old Dad!

His shoes need a shine and his cuff links are tin;
He does sometimes shave, but his top hair is thin;
You hardly would say he was neat as a pin -
Shabby old Dad!

Shabby old Dad, with his heart full of woes,
And so much to think of besides buying clothes;
With the kids needing food, and the money! God knows!
Shabby old Dad!

If there is a Heaven where peace can enfold
A life lived for others, a heart that's pure gold,
He'll go there and live there in glory untold -
Shabby old Dad!

Terrific trio of jazz stars for next 115 Club

BRIDPORT'S only Dedicated Dinner and Music Venue were enthralled and entertained to the highest of Cabaret and Jazz standards last week, with Charlie Bicknell, supported by David Harrod and Clive Ashley performing west end classics as well as jazz numbers, to a captured audience. Every number was followed by rapturous applause, making June 7th a fabulous evening. If you did happen to miss that one, why not book for the next 115 Club gig, Pete Maxfield, a triumph on Double Bass returns once again, this time with Ray Diverno on Keyboard and Vocals by Sarah Prichard. Both Ray and Sarah are well established and respected artists in their own right. Ray is a Classical Pianist, who at a young age turned to Jazz, opening his own Club in Bushley, North London and has supported many Jazz musicians (including Tubby Hayes) As well as playing Ray has taught, promoted and has been Chairman of Jazz South. Sarah is a Glamorous and huge talent, with the highest of Jazz standards and exotically fabulous vocals, bringing a diverse but classic Jazz edge.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00 and 8:00 pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge – anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

17th Beaminster Festival of Music and the Arts

EXCITEMENT is building towards this year's

By Tanya Bruce-Lockhart, Festival Director

ing soprano, Marilyn Hill Smith, accompanied by Beaminster estival celebrations, which take off on Saturday, June 23rd with the annual Dancing in the Square event which always brings the whole community of Beaminster together. As well as local musical heroes - DT8, and the musical talent from Beaminster School - the Festival welcomes King Pleasure and The Biscuit Boys. With a spectacular zany show of rough, tough rock, rhythm and blues - all the sounds of the USA will fill the air.

Founded by lively members of the Beaminster WI, the Raucous Chorus makes its public debut with show songs, folk tunes and all kinds of musical surprises that will launch Beaminster's Big Sound into the stratosphere! Thanks to Danisco Limited, The Co-operative Society and Buglers Limited, we are able to host this as a free event.

The Festival has become increasingly inclusive over the years with events of all kinds to suit all tastes and pockets. We try to build in as many free events as we can but fund-raising this year has been a bit of a nightmare, taking into account the current economic climate. However, we would like to thank ALL our sponsors and donors for making it again possible for us to sustain the quality and variety of our programme, including the schools music workshops which are again made possible through the generosity of the Esmee Fairbairn Charitable Trust. We could achieve very little without our friends and supporters.

Concerts in the church start with a piano recital given by the internationally celebrated Phillip Dyson who is playing a programme of music which includes all the popular classics. A cross between Franz Liszt and Liberace, this talented tycoon of the keyboard is destined to entertain everyone who enjoy piano music.

Our lunchtime concerts are always popular and this year include: Operetta a la Carte - a delicious confection of familiar and some unfamiliar Viennese opera melodies introduced by writer and broadcaster, Peter Kemp, and sung by the enchant-

Allan Schiller at the piano.

Our afternoon talks are always popular and we are delighted to welcome back veteran broadcaster, Humphrey Burton, who is giving an illustrated talk about his late friend and colleague, the controversially talented and infamous film-maker Ken Russell.

Excerpts include: Tommy, Women in Love and The Boy Friend which launched the film career of Twiggy.

Other talks feature an illustrated talk by the world-wide vet, Luke Gamble; Sarah Bradford revealing the inner life of HM The Queen; and best selling novelist Kate Summerscale exposing the intimate and sexual adventures of the disgraceful Mrs. Robinson!

We pray for good weather - it can't just rain forever! Two of our outside events don't depend on sunshine but it does help! The Illyria Open Air Theatre Company bring their latest Roald Dahl production: The Twits on Sunday, June 24th to the glorious grounds of Slape Manor (refreshments and swimming are on the menu as well!) and Clipper Teas and Symonds and Sampson are hosting a Picnic in the Park event at Beaminster Manor on Sunday, July 1st complete with Rainbow Steel Band.

Annual Beaminster
Pyramid Gala
enjoyed by all

BFIT and Beaminster Pool hosted the Annual Beaminster Pyramid Gala on Friday, June 1st. Pupils from Years 3 - 6 fought a mighty and energetic battle to claim the shield. Personal performances were excellent from those who compete regularly with local clubs and the many first time competitors. The high shrill voices certainly filled the building with energy and excitement. Salway Ash School team was the proud winner of the shield and Parrett and Axe School was the runner up.

Well done to the Bfit team who fed the children and hungry spectators with burgers, sausages and cakes. £142 was raised. Thanks go to Lisa Crew and her well practiced helpers. Another wonderful event enjoyed by all.

Thatched cottages with just under seven acres and no onward chain

TWO thatched cottages set in just under 7 acres offered with no onward chain. The cottages lie on the outskirts of Hawkchurch, a sought after Devon village near the coastal town of Lyme Regis. The cottages are reached down a private lane and enjoy views to open countryside. The cottages are immediately adjacent to each other and offer scope for people wishing to live together but retain independence. Linking the cottages may be possible subject to any necessary consents required.

The land is currently set up for equestrian use with stabling and field shelters. There is a large barn with hay store and separate milking parlour. The land could equally lend itself for other uses such as a small holding. The lane gives access to the detached garage and parking area and splits the land into two halves. The land near to the properties is fenced, has a paddock and below are a block of stables with tack room and hay barn.

Immediately adjacent to the cottages are private gardens and a patio area for seating. Below the stables is a further field with further stabling and field shelter. All have power and heating. Across the lane is the larger field, this field contains the barn which is split into a feeding area and silage area with hay store attached. The milking parlour is nearby and is currently used for storage. The properties are not listed and viewing is recommended to see all there is to offer here. Hawkchurch Guide price £750,000. For more information on this property please contact Palmer Snell on 01297 529232.

THORNCOMBE - £430,000

THIS fascinating and deceptively spacious cottage is situated at the edge of the thriving West Dorset village of Thorncombe within a short walk of the village centre, with its community run shop/PO, Church, primary school (in Woodroffe pyramid), village hall and vast range of activities. See www.thorncombe.com for more information.

There are lovely views from the garden and first floor and plenty of walks from the doorstep and the stunning Forde Abbey and Gardens less than a mile away.

The property is full of character features and has been sympathetically extended to provide four bedrooms and large landing/study area, family bathroom, ground floor cloakroom, sitting room with wood burning stove, kitchen, breakfast room and large family dining room.

Outside, there is a garage and parking and extensive gardens with enough room for entertaining as well as growing produce. This is a delightful, welcoming family home the like of which rarely comes onto the open market.

The property is offered for sale with an asking price of £430,000. Please call Gordon and Rumsby on 01460 30888 for more information or visit our website www.gordonandrumsby.co.uk.

CORSCOMBE - NO ONWARD CHAIN

THE Old Shop is a charming six bedroom house situated in this sought after village between Dorchester and Yeovil. Having been sympathetically extended, the heart of the building dates back some two hundred years and there is scope for further improvement. The accommodation briefly comprises two reception rooms, kitchen/dining room, family bathroom, wet room and utility room. The property further benefits from pretty gardens and a substantial garage/workshop suitable for a variety of purposes. No onward chain. For more information please contact Bartle Pye on 01305 234077.

CHEDINGTON - £265,000

2 COACH House Cottages is an attached conversion situated in the much sought-after village of Chedington. The property was part of the former stable and carriage block for Chedington Court and was separated for redevelopment in the early 1980s. There are three other properties in the development. The accommodation has a spacious entrance hall, sitting room with wood burning stove, separate dining room, cloakroom, two double bedrooms, bathroom and double-glazed windows throughout. Outside there is a log store, parking, single garage and a garden to the rear set over three levels. The upper level has a lovely view.

Accommodation includes: Entrance Porch – Spacious Hall –

Sitting Room – Dining Room – Kitchen/Breakfast Room with Stable Door to Garden – Cloakroom – Two Double Bedrooms – Bathroom – Electric Heating – Double-Glazed Windows Throughout – Front Courtyard – Enclosed Rear Courtyard – Two Rear Terraces – Off-Road Parking – Garage.

The asking price for 2 Coach House Cottages is £265 000. To receive particulars or to arrange a viewing please contact Elder & Froy at our Beaminster office on 01308 862606. To view the full sale particulars and floor plans please go to www.elderfroy.co.uk.

AXMINSTER - £475,000

SUBSTANTIAL detached 1930's built house in mature grounds of about half an acre on the edge of the town. The house offers a hall, cloakroom, sitting room, dining room, kitchen breakfast room, utility room and self contained annexe currently used as a bed and breakfast business. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms a bathroom and separate W.C., outside are secluded gardens to the front side and rear, a kitchen garden and private driveway providing parking and turning space. For more information please contact Richardson Gill on 01297 23433.

Ford growth outpaces UK market

UK MARKET leader Ford benefitted from a surge in commercial vehicle (CV) sales in May to ensure that Ford's total vehicle sales and share were up for both the month and for the year to date, compared with 2011.

Ford car sales were up 7.0 per cent in May, compared with May 2011, while the car market as a whole was up 7.9 per cent, according to the official figures released today from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT):

- Ford car sales and share up in May and for the year to date
- Ford Fiesta is the UK best seller for the year to date
- Ford commercial vehicle sales and share up in May
- Ford Transit accounts for more than one-in-five sales in the total CV market

The official figures released by the SMMT show that total car sales in May were up 7.9 per cent to 162,288 units, compared with May 2011. Ford car sales of 23,083 were up 7.0 per cent, from 21,581 in May 2011. For the year to date (end May) total UK car sales were 868,166 up 2.6 per cent compared with 2012, while Ford car sales for this period in 2012 were 126,215 up 5.2 per cent compared with 2011.

Ford's strong performance in car sales through 2012 is underlined by the Ford Fiesta's clear No 1 position in the UK market for the year to date. Ford Fiesta sales for the year to date have increased from 42,814 to 50,507, compared with the same period in 2011.

Ford's large car range made significant gains in May, securing sales and share increases compared with May 2011. Ford Mondeo, Ford S-MAX and Ford Galaxy sales of 2,105, 1,166 and 1,040, respectively, were up from 1,356, 675 and 669 in May 2011.

After slow sales from January through April, the UK light commercial vehicle and medium commercial vehicle segments picked up significantly in May with sales up 11.0 per cent, compared with May 2011. Ford's combined sales in these segments were up 32.3 per cent in May, increasing to 7,178 from 5,425 in May 2011.

Ford medium commercials, headed by the industry-leading Ford Transit, accounted for 31.3 per cent of sales in that segment for the year to date, up from 28.2 per cent in 2011. Ford Transit's position as the UK's best-selling commercial vehicle remains unchallenged: Transit sales were up in May, increasing from 4,426 to 5,880, compared with May 2011.

Mark Ovenden, Ford of Britain managing director, said: "The strong sales momentum Ford's car range through 2012 is now being matched by our commercial vehicles, with the notable recovery in that sector in May.

"The combination of our best-ever product range of vehicles and an unmatched UK dealer network positions Ford as the clear market leader. With the new 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine in Focus proving a big hit and taking 25 per cent of Focus orders, we are looking forward to even more exciting new product news this year with the launches of the Focus ST, the new Ford B-MAX, and the new Ford Transit."

Kia hits new May sales record

- 5,176 new cars sold in the month
- 33 per cent increase compared to May 2011
- Year-to-date sales up by 24 per cent versus 2011
- Market share tops three per cent for month and year to date
- Globally Kia increases sales by 15 per cent year on year

KIA keeps on hitting new records as its stylish, quality range of vehicles keeps on attracting new customers to the brand. In May Kia Motors (UK) Limited hit a new record of 5,176 sales in the month – a market share of 3.19 per cent – taking sales for the year to date to 27,507 and a market share of 3.17 per cent.

At a global level Kia saw a 15 per cent growth year on year with total sales for the month up to 240,000 and total sales so far in 2012 reaching 1,106,041 units.

This continued sales success comes as Kia replaces its all-European cee'd model – the new car went on UK sale on June 1 and the May record was reached despite the previous version of the five-door hatchback being in run-out.

Kia UK's May sales were up more than 33 per cent compared to last year's month total of 3,873 and up by almost 24 per cent in year-to-date terms from 22,184 at the end of May 2011.

Kia's global sales for the year were up by almost 12 per cent compared to 2011 thanks to sales increases in all major regions including the domestic Korean market – up by seven per cent, Europe – by 28 per cent, China – by 21 per cent and North America by nine per cent.

Michael Cole, Managing Director of Kia Motors (UK) Limited said:

"To post a new record May as we were getting ready to replace cee'd with the all-new model was particularly pleasing and it shows that our dealers are continuing to pull lots of new customers into the brand.

"I am very hopeful that with the launch of the new cee'd this performance will continue so that we can reach our sales goal for this year of up to 65,000 vehicles," he added.

Clear weather, A-roads and car parks are the biggest cause of accidents for company car drivers says Total Accident management

TOTAL Accident Management reveals an exclusive study into accidents involving high mileage company car drivers.

The exclusive results between April 2011 and May 2012 from a cross section of corporate motorists under accident management show that business drivers have collision rates that are 30 – 40% higher than those of private drivers.

When looking at how weather can play its part in an accident, just over half of the recorded accidents (53%) took place in clear weather, setting corporate drivers apart from their retail counterparts. While accidents in adverse weather conditions, such as rain, snow and sleet accounted for just 4%.

In adverse weather, drivers automatically take more precaution and reduce their speed, while in clear weather drivers are likely to travel faster and concentrate less, which can then result in an accident.

Looking at road types and related accidents, there was a clear indication that A-roads are where drivers need to be at their most vigilant. The most accidents were recorded on major A-roads (20%) with B-roads (11%) in second place and minor A-roads (9%) in third place. Only 2.27% of accidents were recorded on motorways, reinforcing their relative safety compared to A and B-roads.

The other key location where nearly 10% of accidents happened was in car parks. Although vehicles are travelling at slower speeds, drivers have to deal with many other factors as well as maintaining their own concentration. This type of accident is likely to be the most costly to fix overall.

When looking at accident circumstances, 17% of incidents involved a driver hitting a parked vehicle, while 15.2% of accidents were results of a driver hitting a vehicle in the rear, and 11% of accidents involved a vehicle colliding with an object or property. All three could be caused by a combination of excess speed and/or lack of concentration.

"We collect the data at regular intervals, which allows us to get a better picture of seasonality and external influences, and how they impact on accidents," explained Total Accident Management's operations director Amanda Mullans.

"If companies and their drivers can be made more aware of how different road types, weather conditions and other external factors have on driving safety, I am sure employers would ensure their employees take appropriate care when driving on company business. Total has developed its DriveSecure package to assist employers with many aspects of risk assessment," she added.

Nissan whips up a new 99 for the summer

- Revised Pixo with CO2 emissions below 100g/km
- Two new colours and revised interior
- On sale now, priced from £7,250

NISSAN'S compact city car has been refreshed in time to keep it looking cool for the summer. The new Pixo features fresh exterior colours, an improved interior and, crucially for tax and toll savings - a drop in CO2 emissions to 99g/km.

And while the Pixo is choc full of features, it's certainly not flakey. The urban-friendly vehicle combines an efficient three-cylinder engine and compact dimensions to create a small car that's perfect for avoiding those (traffic) cones in the city.

Changes to the engine tune and aerodynamic improvements have combined to reduce CO2 levels by 4g/km to 99g/km, allowing Pixo to enjoy tax benefits, congestion charge exemption and reduced emissions.

The Pixo will also benefit from enhancements to the car's interior. The door trims around the glovebox and centre console are now black rather than grey to add a touch of class.

Every Pixo is also now fitted with an electronic auto-dimming rear view mirror - a feature usually reserved for luxury cars!

The perfect topping for any Pixo could be one of the two new metallic colours, Glistening Grey and Midnight Purple. Six other shades are available.

Despite all these features the Pixo's prices can't be licked, starting from £7,250 for the Visia and rising to £8,250 for the range-topping n-tec five-door model.

Five-door option gives customers more ways to get into an up!

THE new five-door Volkswagen up! is now available to order, costing just £365 more than the equivalent three-door model. With wide-opening rear doors and a starting price of just £8,360, getting into Volkswagen's award-winning city car now really is easier than ever.

The five-door up! has the same virtues as its three-door sibling: a 2.42 m long wheelbase that makes for impressive interior space despite a diminutive and easy-to-park 3.54 m overall vehicle length, a capacious 251-litre boot, an efficient three-cylinder engine, new-to-the-class safety features and an innovative infotainment system.

Rear passengers in the five-door up! benefit from exactly the same space as those in the three-door model, with 947 mm of headroom (versus 993 mm in the front) and 789 mm of legroom. The rear seat base is set slightly higher than that in the front, at 378 mm (versus 306 mm) giving passengers a clearer view of the road ahead.

The five-door range mirrors that of the three-door, with a choice of Take up!, Move up! and High up! models, plus the special edition up! Black and up! White. Five-door models are expected to make up just over half of all up! sales.

As with the three-door, two BlueMotion Technology versions will also be available, offering sub-100 g/km CO2 emissions, and therefore avoiding VED. The 60 PS Move up! BlueMotion Technology returns 68.9 mpg on the combined cycle, while emitting just 95 g/km, and the 75 PS High up! BlueMotion Technology offers 67.3 mpg and 98 g/km.

A fully electric version will join the range in late 2013, and an automated manual gearbox will become optional later in 2012.

As well as front and side airbags, ABS with Hydraulic Brake

Assist, Isofix child seat preparation in the rear and standard ESP (on all but the entry level Take up! model), the up! can be ordered with an optional City Emergency Braking system. This uses sensors to scan the space ahead of the vehicle, applying the brakes if it detects that the car is about to hit an object in front, and costs from just £225. The up! has received a five-star rating and the Advanced Award from Euro NCAP, the European New Car Assessment Programme. It is the first vehicle in this class to receive these awards.

Standard on the High up! model and above, and optional on the rest of the range is the Maps & More infotainment system, a mobile device that organises navigation, telephone, information and entertainment. It is removable, but unlike many other similar systems of this type, it melds with the car's network of systems and can be used to view vehicle information, such as the display of the parking sensors (where fitted).

The up! is the World Car of the Year 2012, What Car? Car of the Year for 2012, and has also been named TopGear magazine's Small Car of the Year.

UK deliveries of the five-door up! are expected to start in August. The three-door up! is in Retailers now. For prices of all up! models, see overleaf, and for more details on this and Volkswagen's award-winning range of cars, please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk.

Olympics build-up gathers pace

Weale makes Olympic team

YEOVIL born Sam Weale will represent Team GB in the Modern Pentathlon at the London 2012 Olympics.

Weale was named last Friday as part of the Team GB who will field a full complement of two male and two female athletes in the modern pentathlon competition for the second successive Olympics.

This follows a very competitive qualification period, during which eight British athletes exceeded the Olympic qualification standard.

Weale will compete alongside Nick Woodbridge, currently ranked fifth in the world. Both will be competing in their second successive Olympic Games, having made their debuts in Beijing in 2008.

Weale recently became the first British man to win a European Championships medal.

Olympic debutants Mhairi Spence and Samantha Murray will be looking to continue Team GB's proud record in the women's competition.

Britain's highest ranked female Spence won World Championship gold this year, while Murray claimed the bronze medal. Both will be aiming to continue their fine form in London.

Great Britain's female modern pentathletes have an outstanding track record at the Olympic Games, having won four medals since the women's event was added to the Olympic Programme at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

The men's competition takes place on 11th August, followed by the women's competition a day later, meaning the women's medals will be the last medals won at the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Weale is the twin brother of former Yeovil Town goalkeeper Chris Weale, and said about his selection: "I am delighted to have been selected for my second Olympic Games. Being a home Games it truly will be a once in a life time experience and I will be doing my very best to make the country proud."

Team GB Chef de Mission Andy Hunt said: "The fact that eight British athletes achieved the modern pentathlon Olympic qualification standard is a tribute to the excellent performance programme that has been developed by Pentathlon GB."

"The four athletes selected today have demonstrated their great potential with impressive results at world level over the past 12 months."

The most notable of these are the gold and bronze medals won by Mhairi and Samantha respectively at the World Championships.

Olympic snippets:

- The addition of the modern pentathletes brings the total number of athletes officially selected to Team GB for London 2012 to 182 across 15 sport disciplines: archery, athletics – marathon, badminton, boxing, canoe slalom, fencing, hockey, modern pentathlon, rowing, sailing, shooting, swimming, synchronised swimming and table tennis.
- Team GB will compete in all 26 sports on the Olympic Programme in London 2012.
- Team GB is expected to consist of approximately 550 athletes.
- The modern pentathlon event will take place on the 11th (men) and 12th (women) August at the Copper Box (fencing), the Aquatics Centre (swimming) and Greenwich Park (riding and combined run/shoot).
- Modern pentathlon debuted at the Olympics 100 years ago at Stockholm in 1912.

■ LONDON BOUND: Sam Weale who has been selected for the Team GB Modern Pentathlon team

- London 2012 will be the first Olympics to feature the run/shoot, also known as the combined event, as the climax to the competition.
- The modern pentathlon at London 2012 will also see laser pistols used for the first time at an Olympic Games. They were introduced to the sport at the start of 2011 to replace the traditional air pistols.
- The women's modern pentathlon medals at London 2012 will be the last medals to be awarded at the Games.

Final tune up for Brits in Sail for Gold

DESPITE heavy rain and high winds, most of Great Britain's Olympic sailors acquitted themselves well in the final big competition before they race for gold in August.

There were one or two surprises but everyone got to test the Olympic course at the Skandia Sail for Gold 2012 held at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy last week.

Biggest surprise was in the Finn class where triple Olympic gold medallist Ben Ainslee was well beaten by the young pretender to his throne Giles Scott.

True, Ainslee was suffering from a virus, but despite uncharacteristically capsizing on medal day, took silver, although 30 points behind the near faultless Scott who won with nine points.

Reigning Olympic champions Iain Percy and Andrew Simpson had a slim one-point lead over their main rivals, four-time Olympic medallist Robert Scheidt and his sailing partner Bruno Prada going into medal day.

But the Simpson/Percy combination had to settle for bronze, beaten by the Irish pair of Peter O'Leary and David Burrows, and the Brazilians who took silver after Percy decided to go left at the start in both races, with their rivals going in the opposite direction.

Alison Young was just one-point behind China's Lijia Xu going into the Laser Radial medal race, but she rounded the windward mark in second to move into the gold medal position and hung on to the finish, with Xu finishing well down the field.

There was notable success too for two of the Paralympic teams.

The Sonar trio of John Robertson, Hannah Stodel, Steve Thomas held off a strong challenge from the Dutch team to win by two points, whilst the partnership of Alexander Rickham and Niki Birrell dominated the Skud class to win easily with just five points.

Helena Lucas just failed to make it a hat trick of paralympic golds in the 2.4 when she was just nudged out by Thierry Schmitter of Holland, both finishing on 15 points.

Beijing Laser gold medallist Paul Goodison went into the medals day in fifth with a chance of taking silver, but in the end had to settle for fourth.

Current 470 World Champions, Matthew Belcher and Malcolm Page had been dominant throughout the week with Britain's Luke Patience and Stuart Bithell their only real rivals.

broken tiller

Although the Brits got away best in the medal race, the Australian's squeezed inside them at the windward mark to complete their dominance in convincing fashion, leaving Patience and Bithell with the silver.

Current 470 Women's World Champions, Hannah Mills and Saskia Clark suffered problems in the medal race when their tiller extension broke moments from the start.

Although they had no chance of making gold, they recovered and moved up a place to take bronze.

Although Steve Morrison and Ben Rhodes, finished second in the medal race, it was not enough to beat their 49er training partners, Dylan Fletcher and Alain Sign, and had to settle for fourth.

Nick Dempsey took bronze in the RS:X men's class after finishing third in the medal race, with Bryony Shaw finishing eighth in the women's equivalent.

The Elliott 6m team of Lucy Macgregor, Kate Macgregor & Annie Lush were beaten 2-1 in the quarter-final by Australia's Olivia Price.

■ TOP TEAM: Jesters receive their Division A trophies.

BOB BUCKLER RACING WITH STUART BROOM

Time for a change at Henley

THE last fortnight has seen sales at Doncaster and Ascot, the result of which has seen one horse leave and another join the Buckler yard at Henley.

Small Fry the eight-year-old who has won two of his 11 races and been placed in three others, was sold last week despite him winning his last run at Ffos Las three weeks ago.

Replacing him is Dora Canina, a four-year-old filly who has had one run; a bumper at Fakenham in ground too soft for her, where she finished near the back despite being sent off as favourite.

However Buckler believes she has potential. "She's a lovely horse. The ground was too soft for her; it was a bit of a bog. She will be turned out for the summer, and in the meantime as she is for sale will be looking for an individual or a syndicate to buy her."

Another one who might be leaving the yard is Flag Flier who ran poorly at Ffos Las last week.

After leading the field in the Walters UK Ltd Handicap Hurdle until halfway, she lost the lead and went backwards to finish last of the seven finishers.

Buckler said: "It was a very disappointing run. She seems to have lost interest in racing and didn't really try after she was beaten."

The nine-year-old has failed to win any of her 22 races, with just two seconds and two thirds, and Buckler feels she would be better suited to doing something else.

"She's a lovely horse but we can find nothing medically wrong including blood tests, so we will think about finding her another home, possibly hunting."

Ethiopia, the yard's only other runner, found the ground at Ffos Las on the same card as Flag Flier, too soft for him, and finished fourth in the Barry Walters Catering Handicap Chase over three miles. He also led until four out but ran out of stream.

Buckler said: "Three times I ran the clerk of the course to check on the ground; the last just before we set off; and she told me the ground was still firm."

"It started raining soon after we left and halfway there I was in two minds to turn back, but continued because the owners were already on the way to the course. I wish I hadn't bothered."

Wilson targets gold

WORLD No 1 Peter Wilson from Glanvilles Wootton, near Sherborne is on target to win gold at the London 2012 Olympics in August after smashing the world record on his way to victory in the ISSF Shotgun World Cup in Tucson, Arizona.

The 25-year-old won the double trap men's final with a new record score of 198 hits out of 200 targets, beating the previous record of 196 set by China's Hu Binyuan in 2009.

Sharpshooter Wilson, whose father taught him to shoot as a youngster after he hurt his shoulder in a snowboarding accident, is one of 11 shooters who will represent GB at the competition which will take place at the Royal Artillery Barracks, Woolwich between July 28th and August 6th.

Olympic shooting facts:

- Shooting has appeared on every Olympic programme, apart from St Louis 1904 and Amsterdam 1928. The number and variety of events have changed many times over the Olympiads.
- From Mexico City 1968, women began competing with men in a number of Olympic shooting events, until the sport became segregated at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games.
- There are three different shooting disciplines: Shotgun, Pistol and Rifle, and each one consists of a qualification and final round.

The competitor's qualification and final round scores are added together, and the person with the most points at the end of the match is declared the winner.

PARLEY 256-7 BEAT

DORCHESTER 124 ALL OUT BY 132 RUNS DORCHESTER crashed to their second defeat of the season at Dean Park and must now pick themselves up for the local derby against Weymouth at Redlands on Saturday.

Parley, who finished second last season, racked up 256-7 after winning the toss.

Sam Collins (28) and Australian Matt Morley gave Parley a good start with a first wicket stand of 64 before James Lewis (2-65) bowled Collins and then Tom Jaques followed soon after, trapping leg before by Pete Moxom (1-25).

However after Morley (60) became Aaron Oliver's first victim on his debut, Raj Naik (41) and captain Roshan Enbelagama (19) continued the good work.

Despite some accurate bowling from Oliver (3-50) and Sam Goodhew (1-43), Kieran Price showed no mercy as he clouted an unbeaten 68 not out to post a challenging total.

Dorchester made a bad start losing Lewis for a duck in the first over. Moxom (20) and Ian Sibley (18) advanced the score to 42, but no one could put together a score of any real substance as Sam Thomson (4-17) carved through the county town's defences.

Goodhew (13), Jon Legg (16) and Joe Power (10) were the only others to make it into double figures and Parley romped home by 132 runs for an easy victory.

Stand-in captain Dan Belt felt his side bowled reasonably well, but that the batting let them down.

"We thought their total was par for the wicket and that we were capable of getting them.

"But we lost a couple of early wickets. Their spinners did bowl well, but our shot selection on the day was poor.

"Despite this Aaron (Oliver) bowled very well on his debut, and he and Sam Goodhew were the pick of our bowlers."

WINTON 157 ALL OUT LOST

TO WEYMOUTH 161-3 BY SEVEN WICKETS WEYMOUTH put themselves in great spirits ahead of their local derby with Dorchester on Saturday with a comfortable second win of the season at bottom side Winton.

Skipper Dean Janaway was pleased with his team's performance.

"It was a good win and a good all round effort. The game was reduced to 46 overs a piece because there was a delay because they didn't have any stumps for some reason, so we didn't start until around 2pm.

"However all four of our bowlers, Dave Trotter (0-21), Matt Lawes (0-27), Dan Hutchens (2-24) and Laurie Whyte (3-35) did extremely well early on, such that they had hardly scored very many after 30 overs.

Only opener Michael Clark (42) and a late flourish from Harry Seal (22) put up a lot of resistance as Simon Browne (3-34) teased out the tail, leaving Weymouth a modest 158 for victory.

Despite losing Janaway (8) early on, Hayden White played with confidence, and White's 46 at more than a run a ball, together with a thumping 38 from Paul Payne added 69 for the second wicket before both were out in quick succession.

Tom England (33 not out) and Kieron Womble (18 not out) continued the Weymouth dominance and put together a half-century stand to take them to victory in less than 28 overs.

It was a great match for Womble, who besides guiding his side to victory, took over as replacement for the unavailable Jim Ryall behind the stumps and took four stumpings.

Janaway added: "Kieron did a fantastic job as Jim's replacement, and was rewarded with four great stumpings, before producing a sensible batting display to see us home.

"Hayden had given us a great start with the bat in reply, that in the end it was a comfortable victory.

"Earlier our bowlers had done extremely well to tie their batsmen down to the point they hardly hit a ball in anger for the first 30 overs which made our target easier."

Division Two

MARTINSTOWN 212 ALL OUT BEAT WITCHAMPTON 165 ALL OUT BY 47 RUNS MARTINSTOWN kept on the heels of the front runners with an excellent win against Witchampton, in a game that could have gone either way.

After winning the toss, visiting skipper Danny Dancer decided to bat.

But Dancer saw his team struggle early on as opening bowlers Ashford (3-29) and Croker (1-47) got the ball to swing around, and they lost Lee House and Henry Lewis with just 14 on the board.

However, a third wicket century partnership between Tom Adams, batting positively and taking on the attack and well supported by Ed Nicholls put Martinstown back in the ascendancy.

The dismissal of Adams for an excellent 66, which included 12 four's, brought Dancer (16) to the wicket and he helped add 44 for the fourth wicket before Nicholls was out for an equally superb 58, including five fours and two sixes.

With Sam Kershaw adding a quick 24 not out towards the end with Danny Way (14), Martinstown were finally dismissed for 212 all out.

Although Matt Camp bowled opener Foster for a duck with the score on six, the top six other batsmen made reasonable contributions that kept Witchampton up with the run rate.

It was the introduction of Way that turned the game Martinstown's way, bowling four of his six victims in a splendid spell of 6-43 from 10.5 overs that saw Witchampton collapse from 103-3 to 163 all out.

Dancer said: "We struggled to score early on losing two wickets with the score on 14. However, when Tom Adams arrived to the crease he batted positively and took their attack on, with Ed supporting him really well.

"Their partnership was fantastic and enabled us to push on over the 200 mark, with Sam Kershaw hitting some very important runs at the back end of our innings.

"We seemed to struggle with the ball early on, and they were up with the rate throughout. The decision to bring Danny Way on paid dividends.

"To take six wickets in a match in his first season in this division is fantastic. He has stepped up to the mark, has bowled consistently well and deserves his rewards.

"It was a good all round display, where we held our nerve when it looked like the game could swing in their favour.

"We travel to Cranborne next week which will be a test with a few key players missing."

WEYMOUTH 2ND 152-9 LOST TO WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 153-5

BY FIVE WICKETS

WEYMOUTH went down to another defeat although captain Michael Pearce is convinced a victory is not far away.

Having posted a defendable target of 152-9, the Seasiders had the visitors 42-4 before a century fifth wicket stand between Ashley Collison and K Hall almost saw them to victory.

Batting first Weymouth lost Harry Tucker (2) with the score on 4-1, and then after Michael Pearce (13) and Ben Doidge (15) looked to have made a recovery, both were dismissed on the same score along with Dave Kitley to leave them 36-4.

This brought Matt Batchelor to the wicket and with Dave Pearce (23), Mark Boggust (16) and Graham Puckett (18), they managed to set the visitors a target of 152-9 with Batchelor unbeaten with a splendid 54 not out.

In reply Tim Guyett (2-44) and Graham Puckett (3-36) had given Weymouth hope as Wimborne & Colehill slumped to 42-4 but no one could stop Collison (55) and Hall (42 not out) steering them towards victory.

Captain Michael Pearce said: "Although another loss, I do believe we are slowly improving.

"Matt Batchelor's 54 not out included two sixes and gave us a defendable score, although we then put on our poorest bowling performance of the season.

"We were on top when we had them 42-4 but credit to their two batsmen who took full advantage of some loose bowling."

Division Three

CATTISTOCK 94 ALL OUT LOST

TO CERNE VALLEY 95-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS CATTISTOCK's reign at the top didn't last long as they were sent to a crashing defeat by Cerne Valley, who now close up behind them in fourth place following this result.

Put into bat on a damp wicket, Cattistock found the going hard against a good all round Cerne attack and it wasn't until the 28th over that they managed to reach 50.

By then they had lost a succession of wickets with only Martin Langford (16), Martin Oliver (23), and a late flourish from Lee Anderson (20) scoring any of consequence, with Rob Baney (3-38), Paul Mercer (3-14) and his father Andy Mercer (2-25) doing most damage.

There was early success for Bradley Damen (1-11) and Anderson (1-15) that saw the visitors tottering on 23-2.

But an unbroken third wicket partnership of 72 between Simon Green (51 not out) and Neil Kellaway (24 not out) saw them home easily despite Cattistock trying seven bowlers.

Division Five North & West

CREWKERNE 154-9 BEAT

BRIDPORT 2ND 76 ALL OUT BY 78 RUNS

BRIDPORT 2nds missed a great chance to beat Crewkerne having restricted them to 154-9, but with their big gun batsmen failing, they fell well short, being dismissed for just 76 all out.

Having put the hosts into bat they had early success when Ben Briscoe bowled Francis Medley with the third ball of the innings.

The former Cheshire all-rounder (1-16 from 12 overs) and Duane Gay (3-25) pinned the Crewkerne batsmen down that at tea they had only scored 50 off 23 overs.

Although Nicholas Keylock (37) stayed firm, he lost partners until Ashley Lawrence (18) joined him and they added 49 for the sixth wicket before Rod Condliffe (2-38) and Rod Gay (3-25) saw them restricted to 154-9 in their 45 overs.

Bridport fared no better in reply losing Robin Jones (2) and then their big hope Briscoe (5) who has been scoring runs for fun. He mishit a shot back over the bowler's head and was caught on the boundary.

At 39-5 captain Jamie Dollman and Rod Gay fought back with 32 in three overs before Gay was caught on the boundary which on another ground would have registered a six.

After that wickets tumbled with Dollman (14) last out. Top Crewkerne bowler was Robbie James who picked up the tailenders with 3-2 from 3.1 overs.

Division Six North & West

SHILLINGSTONE 2ND 133 ALL OUT LOST TO MARTINSTOWN 2ND 153 ALL OUT BY 20 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds returned to winning ways with a hard fought victory away to Shillingstone 2nds.

The visitors won the toss and made slow but steady progress with the bat, with the home side bowling accurately and taking regular wickets.

Only Nick Quintell who top scored with 62 was able to get on top of the bowling.

Having posted a target of 153, Martinstown's opening bowlers Chris Monteith (2-27 from 12) and Colin Crosthwaite (1-44 from 12) gave nothing away.

Excellent fielding and some sharp catches kept up the pressure and Shillingstone's batting finally gave way; David Weldon cleaning up with an impressive 5-28 to seal victory by 20 runs.

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI 264-6 BEAT EXMOUTH III 140 ALL OUT BY 124 RUNS

TWO all-round performances ensured Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nds secured what could be a season defining win against bottom-of-the-table Exmouth 3rds writes Paul Crompton.

Uplyme surged to their highest tally in three seasons, closing on 264 for six in their 124 run win - despite being inserted on a wicket more reminiscent of a football goalmouth.

Jamie Toates did his chances of a first team recall no harm after a big-hitting 59no and ripping through the hosts top order (3-26).

Hostile bowling on an uneven wicket then saw teenager Paddy Barraclough (2-25) whip through the middle order this after being pouched four shy of his second consecutive half-century.

But old cricket clichés rang true throughout the match - with the hosts dropping a handful of catches (and possibly the match) and Uplyme batting in partnerships.

The Exmouth innings started promisingly when they made a breakthrough snagging Henry Perry (2) with just eight on the board.

But the hosts failed to capitalise on the Newton Pophelford track and allowed stand-in skipper Eddie Clarke (38) and Ian Griffiths (22) to put on 62 for the second wicket.

Barraclough and youngster Alfie Bellworthy (34) then put on 89 for the fourth wicket before T Stampford (2-41) bagged two wickets for no runs leaving Uplyme nervy on 165 for six.

But a quick fire partnership of 99 from 72 balls by Toates and Paul Crompton (31no) for the seventh wicket then took the game away from Exmouth.

The hosts' reply started well with Sampford (21) and B Gelder (25) both making starts in an opening partnership of 32.

But only J Gibbons (36) made any other notable contribution as he anchored the Exmouth innings while Wallace Blackmore (3-21) made light work of the bottom order. Extras (38) ended up the hosts' top scorer.

Uplyme (20 points) Exmouth (4 points).

SWIMMING

Young swimmers in form

■ Hannah Pullinger

LOCAL swimmers formed part of the Chard & District Swimming Club which took a team of aged 12, and under, swimmers to the second round of the Southern Junior League last weekend, at Horfield, Bristol.

The team achieved a commendable fifth place, against some stiff competition. Some great swims secured a total of 15 top three positions.

These came from: Elisha Hawkins 12, first in 50m Breaststroke, Michael Moulding 9, third in 25m Breaststroke, Leo Bonning 9, third 25m Freestyle, Henry Taswell 11, second 50m Backstroke, Ryan Adair third 50m Butterfly, Lewis Pearson 12, third 50m Freestyle, Jess McAuley 9, third 25m Freestyle, Eden McDonald 9, third 25m Backstroke, Xanthe Dyer 10, second 50m Butterfly, Abi Bonning 11, third 50m Freestyle, and Leo Kindred 11, third 50m Breaststroke 11 and 12 yrs events.

Relay successes: The 11yr Boys Freestyle and Medley teams achieved second positions in both events, and the 12 years Boys secured third in their freestyle event.

The Junior League Squad for this Gala were:

Boys: Leo Bonning, Ben Webb, Michael Moulding, Joss Copeman, Simon Davis, Oliver Bright, Oliver Parry-Leyshon, Ryan Adair, Ben Greenslade, Liam Mathieson, Henry Taswell, Leo Kindred, Lewis Pearson, Tom Simpson

Girls: Eden McDonald, Leonie Housham, Jess McAuley, Imogen Waterhouse, Daisy Brett, Jess Fowler, Megan Herbert, Xanthe Dyer, Holly Dickinson, Jess Patch, Abi Bonning, India Woodhams, Helen Underwood, Somer Horsfield, Tamsin Edge, Elisha Hawkins, Ella Harvey and Grace Haskins.

Monthly award

Meanwhile, Swimmers-of-the-Month were: Girls: Hannah Pullinger 16, for achieving two new South-West Regional Qualifying times in the 200 backstroke and 200 individual medley.

The Boys award went to Simon Davis 11, for achieving the highest number of progress points in galas and Junior League events.

Successful tournament for new volleyball group

A NEW volleyball group based in Beaminster enjoyed a weekend away in Perranporth to attend a fun beach four-a-side tournament recently.

The three teams played in the annual fundraising competition with other sides from around the south west, enjoying lots of friendly matches.

The men's team were involved in some very close encounters, whilst the two ladies teams met each other in the semi final, finishing second and third.

Despite the windy conditions, the Beaminster teams, their friends and families spent a fun weekend together.

The group are keen to attract new people to their Wednesday evening sessions, and complete beginners are very welcome.

The group is run by B-fit, the organisation that now run the sports facilities at Beaminster School at evenings and weekends.

Sessions are 8pm to 9pm every Wednesday in term time, and costs £3 per session.

For more information call Sarah on 07811 172943.

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB NEWS

THE Juniors of Lyme Regis Golf club contested their monthly stableford in good weather and course conditions on Saturday, June 9th writes Steve Percival.

With some excellent scores carded it was Brad Burraston who achieved first place with an excellent 41 points. Results: 1st Brad Burraston 41pts, 2nd James Phillips 40pts, 3rd Bradley Rowe 39pts

GOLF WEEK - MENS STABLEFORD

IN very unfavourable weather conditions which worsened as the day progressed, the first event in the club golf week took place on Sunday.

Needless to say, with the course conditions matching the adverse weather, scores were relatively low. The first three places were eventually decided on countback with Simon Vicent eventually achieving first place.

Results: 1st Simon Vincent 38pts, 2nd Brian Ebdon 38pts, 3rd Roger Seed 38pts.

■ RETIRING: Outgoing LRGD steward Dave Astill presents wife Chris with a floral tribute at a party at the club last week

Kevin leads Rise

EX-Lyme Regis striker Kevin Turner has been appointed as the new manager of Millway Rise FC writes Howard Larcombe.

Turner, who led the Seasiders front-line to good effect in the mid-1990s, had previously held the reins at South-West Peninsula League outfit Axminster Town.

The 50-year-old succeeds Shane Featherstone who will revert to playing for the reserve team having led the East Devon outfit up into the Perry Street League premier division last season.

Local team leads rally championship

BRIDPORT'S Adrian Scadding leads the co-drivers championship after the fourth round of the British Historic Rally Challenge, with driver Rex Ireland from Charmouth second in his category.

The duo finished second in last Saturday's Severn Valley Rally which saw Scadding overtake leader Bev LeGoode in the D3 class, who did not race this event, with Ireland just three points behind Richard Lane who has had the advantage of racing in both the D3 and D5 categories.

The latest event, the fourth in the calendar, saw Ireland and Scadding finish second in their class behind Nick Painter and Tom Marrott after they visited a ditch on stage four, and had a puncture on stage seven, and a very respectable 14th overall.

This is the third event the pair has raced this year, starting with the Mid-Wales Rally in March where they finished fifth in class. They followed this up by winning the famous Bulldog Historic Rally which put them second overall in their class.

They didn't compete in the recent Pirelli Rally, but their second in the Severn Valley maintains their second position overall.

Their next event is the Harry Flatters Rally at Swansea

TOP CLUB TRIUMPH FOR BRIDPORT

BOWLS ROUND-UP
BRIDPORT OUTDOOR

BRIDPORT Ladies are through to the next round of the National Top Club competition having beaten Dorchester B 3 - 1.

Pamela Daters won seven of the last eight ends to close on 21-12, and Pat Cornick & Melody Watts took four of the last five ends in the pairs to win 20-11.

The triples saw Laura Taylor, Rosemary Brooks & Margaret Clapp home 20-13, with only the rink going down 17-23.

In County League Division Two, Bridport drew with Gillingham 56 - 56 thanks mainly to the four of Sylvia Smith, Janet Bird, Janet Tattershall & Dinah Wilson who won 25-12.

In the men's South Dorset League, Bridport A lost 57-62 at Weymouth and Melcombe Regis despite Bill Payne's four winning 20-15 and Chris Thorne's rink finishing 21-19.

Bridport C went down 41-52 to Weymouth & Melcombe Regis C, although Philip Wilson's quartet salvaged two points by winning the last end to triumph 16-15.

Two mixed friendlies have been played; the first against Merriott resulting in a win for Bridport 82-69 with David Aylott, Margaret Fyfield, Peter Billett & Ken Sanger claiming top rink with a 31 - 13 scoreline.

Tiverton visited Bridport for the first time with the home side winning 124-102 with R.Wilton, Janet Bird, Andy Spiller & Brian Rumble finishing as top rink 26-9.

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

THE 'Summer' weather has taken its toll this week. The ladies county game was cancelled, several of the Percy Baker league games were abandoned half-way through and a Club friendly on Sunday was also washed out.

This, on a week when all the men's league teams were rested, but had to compete in the second round of the County Cup. The ladies were also involved in their next round of 'Top Cub'.

The men managed to win by a margin of 11 shots against Alexandra Park, winning on three of the four rinks, this will pit them against Wimborne in the next round.

The ladies travelled to Poole Park for their Top Club encounter, being unlucky to be pushed onto two end rinks on two separate greens.

The greens proved to be tricky and Lyme won only one of the four disciplines. The pairing of Jan Parsons and Chris Barber were unlucky to go down on their last end dropping an uncharacteristic four shots.

Anne Allman's fours were the only success story, even more pleasing when you consider the Poole Park rink was skipped by England international Julie Saunders.
